

Personal Accommodations

Summary

Columbus State University is not required to provide personal accommodations to students with disabilities, according to federal law.

Purpose

This document describes the personal accommodations for which CSU is not responsible.

Policy

According to the ADA Technical Assistance Manual, Section II-3.6200, Columbus State University, a public entity, is not required to provide individuals with disabilities with personal or individually prescribed devices such as wheelchairs, prescription eyeglasses, or hearing aids; or to provide readers for personal use or study or a Personal Aide in such areas as eating, toileting, or dressing, per Section 504 of the Rehab Act of 1973, Subpart E (34 CFR Part 104.44).

Related USG Policy

4.1.5 Students with Disabilities

Last Update

5/25/17

Responsible Authority

Director of the Center for Accommodation and Access